

Every Wednesday is "Khadi Day" and the university will hold the General Assembly, where all the students and staff will be seen in khadi outfits. The students and faculty dress in Khadi outfits to encourage the khadi industry and weavers and to promote the Swadeshi concept. This initiative is a part of the 75th year celebration of our Independence.